Notice – Regarding Hobby Classes (VI to VIII) for Academic Session 2025-26

Dated: 24.03.2025

Dear Parents,

In the backdrop of events and due to Corona (Covid 19) outbreak physical running of school/s stopped from 2020 to 2022. Finally due to easing of Corona schools were allowed to run from April 2022 and thereafter Schools have been running normally.

During the above phase of the closure of schools and since the children were not in school the Hobby classes were called off completely and in continuation of scheduling of Time Table, Hobby classes have not started upto today. However now the setting is absolutely perfect to restart Hobby classes for the students and the modality setting is as follows -

1. Most importantly the Hobby Classes will be conducted only and exclusively on Saturdays (for Academic Session 2025-26).
2. Half the working day of Saturday i.e. the phase post the Tiffin break i.e. (11:20 a.m. onwards) will be devoted to the Hobby Classes.
3. The school will inform about the working Saturdays for Hobby Classes, which necessarily may not be in order, but will depend as the work schedule of that particular week.
4. A variety of Hobby Classes will be held and the list is as follows:

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Keyboard | 8. Carom | 12 Science experiments |
| 2. Drums | 9. Skating | 13 Drawing and Painting |
| 3. Guitar | 10. Table-Tennis | 14 Public Speaking |
| 4. Tabla | 11. Yoga | 15 Carpentry |
| 5. Vocal music | | 16 Cooking and Baking |
| 6. Western dance (only girls) | | |
| 7. Classical Dance (only girls) | | |

Parents may kindly appreciate that each Hobby will have limited number of students and if more students apply for a particular Hobby then selection will be made by draw of lots which will be conducted in front of the students.

If child does not make up in draw of lots then his second preference will be considered and so on.

Parents must send their preference to the Class teacher by 29.03.2025
