Lesson 23 Tikki Tikki Tembo

This is a story about two brothers named Ping and Tikki Tikki Tembo.

One day, as they both were playing, little Ping slipped on some wet grass and fell into the river.

Tikki Tikki Tembo quickly ran to his mother, asking for help. Mother immediately called the father, who was working in the farmyard.

Father borrowed a neighbour's boat to rescue Ping.

After a few weeks, Tikki Tikki Tembo No Saremba Hari Kari Pi Chi Pip Peri Pembo and Ping were playing near the well when Tikki Tikki Tembo leaned over and fell into the well.

Ping got scared and ran towards his mother for help. Mother quickly called the father who was milking the cow.

Father hurriedly went to the gardener and borrowed a ladder. He climbed down the well and called out to Tikki Tikki Tembo No Saremba Hari Kari Pi Chi Pip Peri Pembo but it took so long for everyone to say the poor boy's name that it was too late. Tikki Tikki Tembo had already drowned.
