Good Morning Students

This lesson is of Class X for the Subject of History and civics. This lesson is being submitted to you on 7.10.24 children we had already started this chapter last week and done The Muslim League today we will do The Lucknow Pact. All the students please open page number 63 of your textbook

Circumstances leading to the Lucknow Pact:-1. International Events:-

During the First World War, Britishers gave a crushing blow to the Turks and Turkey had to surrender all its territories. The British dealt with the Turks harshly. The Muslims were very upset at the treatment given to the Caliph or the religious head of Muslims. This led the Muslims to support the congress in its demand for self-government in India.

2. National Events:-

Some national events also changed the relations of the Muslim Leage with the congress. (i) the Partition of Bengal was cancelled. (ii) Nationalist Muslims like Abul Kalam Azad and the Ali Brothers - Maulana Mohammad Ali and Shaukat Ali spread nationalist ideas among the Muslims (iii) Tilak's release from jail in 1914 and the arrest of some Muslim leaders under the 'Seditious Meetings Act' brought the

3. Changes in the Objectives of the Muslim League:-

Though the Muslim League had supported the British government in the beginning. But in 1913 it changed its objective to a system of self-government under the British Crown. The changed objectives brought cooperation between the Congress and the Muslim League. Annie Besant and Bal Gangadhar Tilak also played a very important role in bringing the two organisations together.

4. A Compromise Between the Two Fractions of the Congress.

Tilak rejoined the Congress in 1916 and he played a major role in solving differences between the Congress and the Muslim League.

Terms of the Lucknow Pact:-

The nationalist made efforts to bring the Congress and the Muslim League to make an agreement on the scheme of political reforms in India. In 1916 the Congress and the Muslim League held sessions at Lucknow. The joint scheme of political reforms was put forward and adopted by both in 1916.

This pact signed between the Congress and the League in 1916 at Lucknow is known as the Lucknow Pact.

Significance of the Lucknow Pact:-1. Hindu- Muslim Unity:-

The Lucknow Pact created Hindu - Muslim Unity. Both agreed to compromise with each other. The Congress agreed to the system of separate electorates. The Muslim league agreed to the scheme of elections.

2. Unity Within the Congress:-

The Lucknow Pact brought unity between the Assertive Nationalists and the Early Nationalists. This made the Indian National Congress strong.

3. Pressure on the Government:-

The Unity between the Congress and the Muslim League and between the Early Nationalists and the Assertive Nationalists became a danger to the Britishers. The Britishers were forced now to give constitutional reforms to Indians.

4. Necessity to Pacify Indians:-

Britishers were forced by Lucknow Pact to improve their relations and pacify Indians. On August 20, 1917 they made the August Declaration which promised to give self-government to Indians gradually.

Drawbacks of The Lucknow Pact:-

1. The Lucknow Pact failed to include all the people of India.

Class: X Chapter 5:- The Muslim LeagueSubject: History and Civics Continued Ms. Rameet

only educated and rich Hindus and Muslims took part

2. It gave importance to separate political existence for the Indian National Congress and the Muslim League.

3. The separate electorates system created communal tension.

4. The Lucknow Pact only created temporary friendship between the Congress and the Muslim League. The Muslim League still wanted a separate provinces for the Muslims.
