The Swing

How do you like to go up in a swing,
Up in the air so blue?
Oh, I do think it the pleasantest thing
Ever a child can do!

Up in the air and over the wall,
Till I can see so wide,
River and trees and cattle and all
Over the countryside—

Till I look down on the garden green,
Down on the roof so brown—
Up in the air I go flying again,
Up in the air and down!

By R. L. Stevenson

A. Ravi has written a letter. Use the words from the box to complete the letter.

is am are you tree bright wickets ripe apples

Dear Grandpa,

I hope you are well.

I am very happy today. Our exams are over.

It is getting cold now. The nights are long.

There are many bright flowers in our garden.

Our swing are still under the tree, where you hung it.

I am a good bowler now. I take many wickets.

Are you going for walks with Grandma?

When will you and Grandma come over?

Will you bring apples? Are the apples ripe yet?

Tina is fine. Mom is teaching her to read and write.

I am waiting for both of you. Tina is waiting too.

Love,

Ravi

B. A girl was telling the class about her visit to a crafts fair. Write the sentences in the right order to find out what happened. The first sentence has been done for you.

I am Babita.

First, I made clay pots with a potter!

I had the toy car in my hand. I left it at a candy stall.

I was at the crafts fair yesterday. My parents took me there.

I was eating when I saw I had no car.

Then I saw toys made of wood. I got a wooden car!

I was about to cry. But Mom found my car. I jumped for joy!
