Good morning students

Students this lesson is for Class III for the subject of English Literature in which Chapter 13, Kiki Flies Away is covered and is being submitted to you on 1.10.24

One day, Sammy's father brought a very special kite for him. It was very big and made up of shiny green paper. Two big black eyes and smiling red lips were painted on it.

It had a lovely long and shining tail. Sammy was very happy. He called it Kiki. He took good care of Kiki. However, he didn't fly him very high. He made sure Kiki remained clear of tree tops and roofs.

But Kiki wasn't happy. It wanted to fly high in the sky like his friends.

One Sunday, Father took Sammy to the huge empty ground. Sammy was very happy to see the sky full of colourful kites. It was a kite-flying festival.

Sammy's father allowed him to fly the kite high in the sky but he was not pleased with the idea. He was afraid of losing Kiki in a kite fight. Sammy didn't let go of too much thread and held on tightly as Kiki struggled to rise higher. Kiki was very upset. Kiki pulled at the thread with all his strength and Sammy had to let him go. The wind helped Kiki to rise higher and higher till Sammy was clutching on to the end of the thread. Strings were at war and finally Kiki's string was cut off and he flew away from Sammy. Sammy had lost his friend. He ran back home crying and sat alone in his garden. On the other hand, Kiki realised he was dropping down without the string to hold him in place. He was afraid that he might get stuck up a tree or fall on the rocks. Suddenly, he fell at the feet of a little boy. Kiki found Sammy again. Both of them were very happy. Sammy picked up Kiki and hugged him with happiness.
