

A. Join each pair of sentences given below using and, but, or, because or so.

1. You can have sandwich. You can have cornflakes.

2. Akriti is a dancer. Akriti's sister is a singer.

3. You can play tennis. You can play cricket.

4. I like cauliflower. I don't like cabbage.

5. Anjali cannot play today. It is raining heavily.

6. Achin can go with his mother. Achin can go with his father.

7. Sahil worked hard. He passed the examination.

B. Fill in the blanks with and, but, or, because or so.

Anjali _____ her sister went to the market. Anjali wanted to buy a toy _____ her sister did not like the toy. They entered a restaurant _____ they were hungry. Anjali asked her sister whether she would take sandwich _____ pastry. Anjali ordered a sandwich for her sister _____ a pastry for herself. It was getting dark _____ they returned home without buying anything else.

