Stanza 1 : Sparrows in a nest,
One, two and three;
Under mother's breast,
Warm as warm can be!

Explanation : In the first stanza, the poet talks about three sparrows in a nest and they are covered under mother's breast. They feel warm under it. It shows the love of the mother to her children.

Stanza 2 : Mother keeps you warm,
Father brings you food;
Trouble you have none,
Happy little brood!

Explanation : In the second stanza, the warmth is given to the children by their mother.

Father brings food for them. Sparrows don't have any trouble. All the young birds in a nest are happy. They are happy because everything is given to them by their parents.

Stanza 3 : Mind you do not fall
From your nest on high;
You've no feathers yet,
So you cannot fly.

Explanation : The poet warned the young birds not to fall because their nest is placed so high on the tree. The young birds have no feathers at all. As a result, they cannot fly in the sky.

Stanza 4 : When your feathers grow,
On a sunny day
You shall learn to fly;
Chirp, chirp away.

Explanation : In the last stanza, when the feathers of the birds grow, on a sunny and bright day, the birds will learn to fly high in the sky. Birds will chirp and go away from their nest.
