

TENDER HEART HIGH SCHOOL, SEC 33B, CHD

SUBJECT: English Literature

CLASS: III

DATE: 4.11.24

CHAPTER: 14, The Parrot's Message

TEACHER: Pamelpreet

Good morning students

Students this lesson is for Class III for the subject of English Literature in which Chapter 14, The Parrot's Message is continued and is being submitted to you on 4.11.24

A Understanding the Text.

- 1a. The merchant lived in Bokhara.
- b. He was going to India.
- c. The merchant's parrot was from India.
- d. The merchant met a group of parrots in the jungle or in woods.
- e. An old parrot fell from the tree when the merchant gave the message.

2 Answer these questions.

- a. The parrot sent message to the parrots that there was one of their friends spending his days in a cage in Bokhara while they were flying about in the sky and enjoying their freedom.

- b. When the merchant gave the message to the parrots, an old parrot began to shake and suddenly fell off the tree and lay dead at the merchant's feet.
- c. The merchant felt sorry when a parrot fell off the tree and lay dead because he thought that the old parrot must have been a great friend or relation of his friend.
- d. The parrot pretended to be dead after hearing the merchant's story.
- e. The merchant threw his parrot into the garden because his sudden death made him quite sad but there was nothing he could do about it.
- f. When the merchant threw the parrot out, he spread his wings and flew to a nearby tree.
- g. The message was that if he wanted to be free, he should pretend to be dead.

B. Reference to Context.

- a. The merchant said to the parrots loudly.
- b. The merchant thought to himself.
- c. His own parrot said to the merchant.

HOMEWORK

Do these exercises in the notebook.