Good morning students

Students this lesson is for Class III for the subject of English literature in which Chapter 3, Saving the Apple Tree is covered of your textbook titled Reading Ventures.

Once upon a time there was an old apple tree in the centre of the village. Children loved to play around the tree and pick tasty red apples. Adults sat in the shade of the tree to discuss important things.

The apples were used to make delicious dishes, apple pies, apple cakes, crispy apple chips, apple jam or apple juice. One day, the head of the village received a letter that a new railway line was going to be built through the village. First everyone in the village was upset but they were convinced that the railway line would be very useful for them. However, the children of the village were not agreed. They quickly held a meeting under their favourite tree to save it.

When the elders returned with their axes and saws, the children stopped them. They explained to them that they could dig out the roots of the tree carefully and carry the tree to the hilltop outside the village.

Soon everyone got busy making a cart large enough to carry the tree. When the cart was ready, the tree was carefully uprooted and placed on the cart. The children were very happy. The tree was replanted at the chosen spot. Everyone was happy. In the end, the railway line has been completed and the village was also prospering along with the apple tree.
