CHAPTER: 4, In the Heart of a Seed

TEACHER: Pamel preet

Good morning students

Students this lesson is for Class III for the subject of English Literature in which Ch-4 In the Heart of a Seed is covered starting on pg no. 19 of your literature book and is being submitted to you on 20.5.24

Stanza 1:

In the heart of a seed,
Buried deep, so deep,
A dear little plant
Lay fast asleep.

Explanation:

In the first stanza, it is stated that in the center or middle part of the seed which is buried deep in the ground, there is a plant to be that is not yet ready sprout above the ground.

Stanza 2:

'Wake,' said the sunshine,
'And creep to the light.'
'Wake' said the voice
Of the raindrops bright.

Explanation:

The second stanza tells the essential elements from the environment that the seed needed in order to grow and be a plant. So the sunshine and the raindrops wake him up. The sunshine which gives light and the raindrops which provide water.

Stanza 3 :

The little plant heard,
And it rose to see
What the wonderful world
Outsight might be!

Explanation:

In the third stanza, it shows that the nutrients from the sunlight and water had already penetrated in the seed. Hence the seed is now ready to sprout. When the seed came out of the ground, it is already a plant. The seed had become a plant that will grow and be a part of the environment.
