

TENDER HEART HIGH SCHOOL, SEC 33 B, CHD

SUBJECT: English literature

CLASS: IV

DATE: 2.12.24

CHAPTER: 19, Makarand, the storywriter

TEACHER: Pamelpreet.

Good morning students

Students this lesson is for Class IV for the subject of English literature in which Chapter - 19, Makarand, the storywriter is continued and is being submitted to you on 2.12.24

A. Understanding the Text

1 a. yellow wooden cupboard.

b. A table

c. change his mind about being a writer.

d. didn't have any good ideas for writing a story.

2 a. The school building was painted white and had a red brick roof. The classroom was small with the blackboard up front along with the teacher's desk and a small library.

b. Makarand's classmates teased him about a table that he wanted to buy if he had five hundred rupees.

- c. Makarand found reading 'magical' because he met so many characters in the stories and understood what they were doing or feeling. He travelled places with them and learned new and wonderful things.
- d. Makarand regularly checked the newspaper because he was eagerly waiting for the result of the competition.
- e. Makarand felt elated or happy when he won a prize.

B. Reference to Context

- 1a. 'He' refers to Makarand.
- b. It was writing a story that he did not finish.
- c. He had wanted a table to become a writer.
- 2a. Father is the speaker. He is speaking with Makarand.
- b. He felt disappointed but he realised his father was right. He stopped writing, but not for a long time.
- 3a. Makarand is the speaker.
- b. His name was in the paper because he won consolation prize.

- c. He had won a prize of just one hundred rupees.
- d. The speaker was very happy.

HOMWORK

Do these given exercises in the notebook.