

A. Understanding the Text

- a. look for food.
- b. continuous wailing of the child.
- c. tiger would eat him up.
- d. his mother gave him a persimmon.
- e. was afraid the tiger would kill him.

2. Answer these questions.

- a. A ferocious tiger who lived on the mountain scared the villagers of the small village.
- b. The tiger heard the howling of the child when he crouched outside a window.
- c. The mother said that there was the big bad bear who was opening his huge jaws to eat him up to make the child stop crying. Secondly, there was a big tiger from the mountain.
- d. The child finally stopped crying when his mother told him that she was carrying a dried persimmon.
- e. The tiger was scared of persimmon because he thought it was more fearsome than a fox, a bear or even him. It might be a horrible monster.
- f. The thief was hiding on the roof to steal a cow from the woman's house. He suddenly lost his balance and landed on top of the tiger.

g. The thief managed to get off the tiger's back by holding a low branch of a tree and jumped off the tiger.

B. Reference to Context.

1a. The tiger

b. He wanted to eat the child

c. 'Racket' is referred to unpleasant sound made by the child.

2a. The tiger is the speaker.

b. He thought the woman was clever because he made the child stop crying by saying that there was a tiger outside the window.

c. The speaker was outside the window of the house

3a. The mother said to the child

b. The speaker mentions a persimmon to make him stop crying.

c. The child stopped in mid-cry.

d. The tiger is affected by these words because the tiger thought it was more terrible than him.

HOMEWORK:

Do these exercises in the notebook.