Good morning students

Stanza 1

Last Night, Daddy bought us a robot
To help with the housework and whatnot.
It can cook fine cuisine
That is fit for a queen.
It can clean all the rooms
With its high-tech brooms.

Explanation :

Last Night, Daddy got his family a robot to help the family in household chores. The robot can cook in the kitchen that every woman wants. It can also clean all the rooms with its latest brooms.

Stanza 2 :

It can wash dirty clothes
Till they smell like a rose

This robot is one of the latest inventions
And I know Daddy had the best of intentions,
But it was so very expensive, you see,
The loan won't be paid till I'm thirty-three.

Explanation :

The robot can wash dirty clothes till they are cleaned properly and smelled like a rose. The robot is one of the latest inventions in the world. The poetess knows that daddy has his best plans. But the robot is so expensive that the loan cannot be paid till the poetess will be thirty-three years old.

Stanza 3

So Dad says we must take the greatest care
Not to harm it or cause any wear and tear.
So Mom does the laundry and makes our lunch.

While Dad cleans the house and I serve the punch.

And what, you might ask, does the robot do?

It just sits by the window, enjoying the view.

Explanation :

The father of the family warned the other family members to take care of the robot with special care without damaging it. As a result, now mother washes the clothes and makes their lunch. Father or Daddy cleans the house and the poetess serves the fruit drink. Now the robot has one thing to do i.e. it just sits by the window and enjoys the view or sight outside.
