

Read the descriptions and identify these flowers.

1

This flower is shaped like a saucer. It grows on vines. It blooms in the early morning.

Morning Glory

This flower is known for its pleasant fragrance. The oil extracted from it is used in perfumes.

Jasmine

2

3

Its name comes from the old English Word 'Day's Eye' like an eye. It blooms open in the day and closes at night.

DAISY

The name of this flower means 'turban' because of its shape. It blooms in spring.

Tulip

4

5

This trumpet-shaped flower comes in various colours. It blooms in spring.

Lily

It is the most popular of all garden flowers because of its lovely perfume and beautiful blooms.

Rose

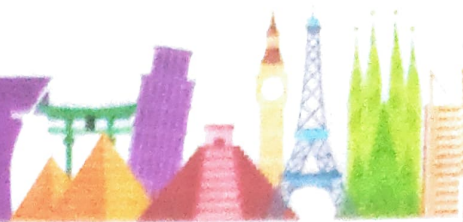

Know More

The Valley of Flowers in Uttarakhand is famous for its variety of flowers.

Clue Box

Tulip
Jasmine
Morning glory

Rose
Lily
Daisy

Plants and trees have a lot of significance in our lives. Sometimes they are used as food items, sometimes as medicines and sometimes as offerings of God.

Fill the missing letters to find the names of such plants.

1. T U R M E R I C is a member of the ginger family and used as colouring agent for foods. It is also used as an antiseptic.

2. The wood of the W I L L O W tree is used to make cricket bats.

3. The leaves of this tree are considered sacred and used in the worship of Lord Shiva. B A E I.

4. The L I L Y is symbol of purity.

5. This tree is sacred to both Hindus and Buddhists.

P E E P A L

6. The M A P L E leaf is the symbol of Canada.

7. The R O S E plant was believed to be brought in India by the Mughal Emperor Babar.

8. Spices like S A F F R O N from the flower of crocus.

9. The open flowers of this plant face the sun. Edible oil can be extracted from the seeds of this plant.

S U N F L O W E R

10. This plant is regarded as sacred by Hindus and even worshipped. T U L S I.

Know More

The turmeric tree is a medicinal plant. It is very useful to cure wounds, cough and makes our food delicious.