

Tender Heart High School, Sec-33 B
Chandigarh.

Subject: English Literature

Class: V

Chapter: 15 "The Owl and the Pussy Cat."

Good Morning Students,

Today we will discuss the poem "The Owl and the Pussy Cat." which is written by Edward Lear and is his famous nonsense poem. The poem will delight you when you read.

The poet says that 'The Owl and the Pussycat' ventured out to sea, one day. They took along a lot of money wrapped up in a five-pound note and some honey in a gorgeous pea green boat. The Owl gazed up in the sky and began to sing. "O beautiful Pussy! how lovely you are!"

In the second stanza the Pussy remarked, You are a remarkable bird! How endearingly lovely your voice is Oh! please let's get married!

But what can we do for the ring? For a year and a day they set sail towards the Bong tree. There in the wood (forest) stood 'Piggy-wig' his snout ringed at the tip.

In the third stanza they ask the Pig to sell the ring for one shilling. The Piggy agreed to sell its ring. They took the ring and the Turkey who lived on the hill - got them married the following day. They dined and enjoyed the meal with runcible spoon. Later they danced by the light of the moon holding hands on the beach.