

Tender Heart High School, Sec-33B. Chd.

Subject: English Literature

Class: V

Chapter: 14

Union is Strength

Good Morning Students,

Kindly read the Chapter 14 "Union is Strength" thoroughly and then note the given questions and answers in your fair note books in good handwriting.

Page No. 111

I Answer the following questions:

Q1. Why did the rabbits feel that the king had been unfair?

Ans. The rabbits felt that the king had been unfair because they could run like a wind but could not swim. The ~~path~~ King chose the path for the race between tortoises and rabbits in which they were supposed to swim also.

Q2. Write any one of the threats the King made to the Union.

Ans. The king threatened the rabbit union by saying that if they were found disturbing the peace of the kingdom, they would be hanged by their ears.

Q3. What appeal did the president of the rabbit union make?

Ans. The president of the rabbit union appealed the rabbits to find a way out to ^{run} the race with tortoise because ^{where} there is a will, there is a way.

Q4. What was the royal bond?

Ans. According to the bond if the rabbits lost the race then the king will have rabbits stew for dinner.

Q5. What happened in the final race?

Ans. In the final race the tortoises sat on the back of rabbits and when they reached the river bank, the rabbits sat on their shells. Hence they all reached the finishing point together and won the race.

Q6. Having lost the race why did the rabbits in union approach the king?

Ans. The rabbits in union approached the king and pleaded to conduct the race again as they felt that the stigma attached to them would live forever.

Q7. How did the rabbits protest against the king?

Ans. The rabbits protested with slogans on posters and marched up the street to the palace in a long procession, waving their fists in the air.

II Answer the following with reference to the context.

"They wrote slogans on posters and marched up the street to the palace in a long procession."

(i) Who marched up to the palace?

Ans. The rabbits marched up to the palace.

(ii) What was the confusion caused on the roads?

Ans. The protest of the rabbits caused traffic jam and disorder on the roads.

(iii) Why did they march up to the palace in procession?

Ans. The rabbits marched up to the palace in procession to demand justice for themselves.

(iv) Where was the king going that evening?
The king was going to attend a jazz fest that evening.