

Tender Heart High School 33B Chd.

Subject English Language

Class: VI

Date: 15.12.24

Topic: Direct and Indirect Speech.

Good morning students

Today we will practice applying all the rules accordingly while converting the sentences from direct speech to indirect speech.

1. Ritu said, "Kavita is not well."
1. Ritu said that Kavita was not well.
2. Sonu said, "He may go home soon."
2. Sonu said that he might go home soon.
3. Mona said, "They are playing cricket now."
3. Mona said that they were playing cricket then.
4. Som said, "Nigar waited for her all day."
4. Som said that Nigar had waited for her all day.

5. Rekha said, "They will turn left now."
5. Rekha said that they would turn left then.
6. The teacher said, "Reeta has not written her home work in her diary."
6. The teacher said that Reeta had not written her home work in her diary.
7. Mike said, "The children were enjoying the show for years."
7. Mike said that the children had been enjoying the show for years.
8. Sam says, "Dad is watering the plants."
8. Sam says that dad is watering the plants.
9. Jai will say, "Rishi is excited about the concert."
9. Jai will say that Rishi is excited about the concert.
10. The teacher said, "The sun rises from the east."
10. The teacher said that the sun rises from the east.

11. The teacher said to the class, "The tubes are thin and long."
11. The teacher told the class that the tubes were thin and long.
12. Guneeet said, "I met Parul today."
12. Guneeet said that she had met Parul that day.
13. Nipun said, "Harvey called me yesterday."
13. Nipun said that Harvey had called him the previous day.
14. I said to mother, "I will come home tomorrow."
14. I told mother that I would come home the next day/following day.

Please note down these sentences in your pair notebooks neatly for better understanding.

