

Tender Heart High School, Sec-33B Chd.
Subject: English Literature
Class: VI

Lest We Forget

Good Morning Students,

After reading Chapter - 12 "Lest We Forget" of your English reader thoroughly please note down the given questions and answers in your fair English Literature notebooks in good handwriting.

Answer the following with reference to the context.

"This great builder of the nation, after witnessing the great Bengal famine in 1943 where three million people died from starvation....."

Q1. What made M.S. Swaminathan dedicate his life for the nation?

Ans. The great Bengal famine where million of people died due to hunger made Swaminathan dedicate his life for the nation.

Q2. What did M.S. Swaminathan want to eradicate from the nation?

Ans. M.S. Swaminathan made up his mind to dedicate his life to eradicate hunger and poverty from the nation.

Q3. By what name did the people remember - the living legend, Dr. M.S. Swaminathan.

Ans. 'The living legend', Dr. M.S. Swaminathan was rightly called as the Father of the Green Revolution in India.

Answer the following questions:

Q1. What did Pandit Jawahar Lal do for India?

Ans. Pandit Jawahar Lal Nehru steered India through numerous challenges and laid the foundation for the growth in industrial technology, agricultural and economical spheres.

Q2. Who was the architect of Modern India?

Ans. Pandit Jawahar Lal Nehru was the architect of Modern India.

Q3. Who was known as the father of the Indian cinema?

Ans. Dunderaj Govind Phalke was known as the father of Indian cinema.

Q4. Where did Govind Phalke release his debut silent film Harishchander?

Ans. Govind Phalke released his silent debut film Raja Harishchander at the coronation cinema, Givgaon, Bombay.

Q5. Where did Govind Phalke settle after his retirement?

Ans. After retirement Govind Phalke settled in Nasik.

Q6. Which was Govind Phalke's last film?

Ans. 'Yanavataran' was Govind Phalke's last but first only talking film.

Q7. Who was Homi Jahangir Bhaba?

Ans. Homi Jahangir Bhaba was an Indian nuclear physicist, founding director and professor of physics at the Tata Institute of Fundamental Research.

Q8. Where did Homi Jahangir study?

Ans. Homi Jahangir studied at Bombay's Cathedral and John Cannon School and after passing his senior Cambridge examinations he joined Elephinstone College at the age of fifteen years.

Q9. How did Homi Jahangir Bhaba die?

Ans. Homi Jahangir Bhaba died in Air India Plane crash while heading to Vienna, Austria to attend a meeting.

Q10. What was the impact of Jawahar Lal Nehru's speech on the eve of Independence.

Ans. Jawahar Lal Nehru's famous speech on the eve of Independence evoked the spirit of free and self dependent country.

Q11 Name some of the builders of India?

Ans. Some of the builders of India are:

M. S. Swaminathan

Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru

Dhundiraj Govind Phalke

Homi Jahangir Bhabha.

Q12. What changed the mind of M. S. Swaminathan to switch over from medical field to agricultural field.

Ans. The great Bengal famine shook Swaminathan and he decided to work for the country so he switched from medical to agricultural field.