

Tender Heart High School, Sec-33 B Chandigarh
Subject: English Literature
Class: VI

Chapter-15 "The Gallant Warriors"

Good Morning Students,

Please read Chapter 15 "The Gallant Warriors" thoroughly once every day for a week and then copy down the questions and answers in your notebooks in good handwriting.

Page 90 Q. No 3.

Answer the following questions briefly:

Q1. Why did Ram Singh want to seek Shah Jahan's permission?

Ans. Ram Singh wanted to seek Shah Jahan's permission because his house, in Bindore had caught fire. As such, he wanted to go there to settle his family.

Q2. Who wanted to accompany Ram Singh? Why?

Ans. Amar Singh wanted to accompany Ram Singh as he was his Uncle. He felt that Ram Singh might need his help.

Q3. What did Shah Jahan tell Amar Singh?

Ans. Shah Jahan told Amar Singh that he could go with Ram Singh for only two weeks and will have to face his anger if delayed.

Q4. Why was Shah Jahan annoyed with Amar Singh?

Ans. Shah Jahan was annoyed with Amar Singh because he returned after two months.

Q5. Why did Amar Singh kill Shah Jahan's guards?

Ans. Amar Singh killed Shah Jahan's guards because the emperor had ordered his guards to put him behind the bars. So in order to save himself and run away, he killed them with his sword.

Q6. Who was Arjan Singh?

Ans. Arjan Singh was a commander of the Mughal army to whom Shah Jahan gave orders to kill Amar Singh.

Q7. What tells you that Arjan Singh was a cowardly person?

Ans. Arjan Singh killed Amar Singh by cheating. When he bent over to have some water from the well, Arjan Singh pushed him into the well.

Q8. Why was Shah Jahan unhappy over Amar Singh's death?

Ans. Shah Jahan was unhappy over Amar Singh's death because he was killed by cheating whereas Mughals were always known for their bravery.

Q9. Who defeated Shah Jahan's army? Why?

Ans. Ram Singh defeated Shah Jahan's army to enter Shah Jahan's fort so that he could take his dead Uncle's body from the fort.

Q10. What did Shah Jahan realize?

Ans. Shah Jahan realized that it was very shameful to lose his best commander due to foolishness.

Answer the following with reference to the context:

"Please fetch my husband's body for me..."

(i) Who said these words and to whom?

Ans. Hadi Rani spoke these words to Ram Singh.

(ii) Who has been killed?

Ans. Amar Singh has been killed.

(iii) What was his guilt?

Ans. Amar Singh stayed for two months at Bindore with Ram Singh.

(iv) How was he avenged?

Ans. Amar Singh killed him by cheating.

(v) What was Shah Jahan's regret?

Ans. Shah Jahan's regret was that now he felt ashamed to lose his best commander due to his foolishness.