

Jender Heart School, Sec - 33 B Chandigarh.
Class: VI
Chapter: 2
Subject: Eng.

Good Morning Students,

We had read and understood the story of "The Happy Prince" written by Oscar Wilde. Now please note down the following questions and answers in your fair note-books neatly in good handwriting

Q. Answer the following with reference to the context:

"And something broke inside him.
It was his heart."

(i) Whose heart broke?

Ans. The happy prince's heart broke.

(ii) What had happened earlier in the context?

Ans. Earlier in the context the swallow had died at the statue's feet

(iii) Who appeared the next day on the scene?

Ans. Next day the mayor and town councillors passed by the pillars and looked up at the statue

(IV) What did they say?

Ans. They said that the statue looked shabby so it should be replaced soon.

(V) How did they all behave?

Ans. They all behaved mean and selfish.

Q1. Answer the following questions:

Q1. Give a brief description of the prince's statue?

Ans. The prince's statue was erected up on a tall pillar in the middle of the city of Paris. Its eyes were made of blue jewels and a large ruby glowed on its sword hilt.

Q2. Why did the little swallow stay behind?

Ans. As the winters were very cold in the country, so every autumn the swallows flew away to a warmer country. One little swallow who could not fly with others came to rest at the statue's feet.

Q3. Why was the prince crying?

Ans. The prince was crying because he saw the sufferings of the people in his town.

Q4. Why did the prince want the swallow to take the red jewel ^{out} from his sword?

Ans. The prince wanted the swallow to take out the red jewel from his sword. To help the poor women and ~~his~~ her ill son.

Q5. Where did the swallow take the first jewel from the prince's eye?

Ans. The swallow took the first jewel from the prince's eye to give it to the poor young man who could not hold a pen due to cold as there he had no fire ^{and food} in his house.

Q6. Where did the swallow take the second jewel from the prince's eye?

Ans. The swallow took the second jewel from the prince's eye for the little girl who was trying to sell the match-sticks.

Q7. Why did the swallow decide to stay with the prince's statue?

Ans. The swallow decided to stay with the statue of prince because he had become blind. The kind-hearted swallow decided to help him and show him his town through its eyes.

Q8. What did the God ask his angels one night?

Ans. God asked, one night to his angels to get two most precious things from that town.

Q9. How were the prince and the swallow honoured by God?

Ans. The prince and the swallow got a special place in the heaven due to their great deeds. The little bird sang in God's garden of Paradise and the happy prince praised God's name forever.

