

Class - VIISubject - English LiteratureChapter - Revision

L-12 Julius Caesar

L-13 Car Splashing

Q1 Write the meaning of the following words.

a. Conspire

h. cringing

b. assassinate

i. tyranny

c. Omens

j. rostrum

d. proclaim

k. Submissive

e. calamity

l. ridicule

f. potent

m. astrological

g. exiled

n. gibberish

Q2 Make Sentences

a. client -

b. ruined -

c. humble -

d. fierce -

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Chapter - Revision

L-12 Julius Caesar

L-13 Car Splashing

Q3. Read the following extracts carefully and answer the following questions with reference to the context.

a. I cannot allow you to do so, Cimber. Don't be so foolish as to think that your flattering words, bowing, or cringing will change my heart! Your brother has been exiled under legal orders.

i) Who said these words and why?

ii) Who was Cimber?

iii) What did Cimber want?

b. Stay indoors for my sake. Mark Antony will convey your message to the Senate that you are ill.

i) Who said these words and to whom?

ii) Where was he going and why?

iii) Who was Mark Antony?

Scanned with

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Chapter - Revision

L-12 Julius Caesar

L-13 Car Splashing

c. I accepted the suggestion that master and driver hold on to their ears and do knee-bends, the way you punish little children, while memsahib counted.

i) Who is 'I' here?

ii) Who gave the suggestion?

iii) Why did he want to punish them?

iv) Who is memsahib?

d. You hear what the people are saying, 'I shouted at the sahib. He gave a dirty look towards the man who'd spoken.'

i) What were the people saying?

ii) Who shouted at the sahib?

iii) Who gave a dirty look and towards whom?

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Chapter - Revision

L-12 Julius Caesar

L-13 Car Splashing

Q4. Answer the following questions.

a. What did Panditji do after the gentleman threatened him with the police?

b. What was the remark made by the first onlooker?

c. How does Decius convince Caesar to go to the Senate?

d. How is Caesar killed?

— last page —