

Class - VIITeacher - Ms JaswinderSubject - English LiteratureRevision - Ch - 12, Ch - 13, Ch - 15
Ch - 16, Ch - 17 (Extracts)

Good morning students

Today we will revise chapter - 12 to 17 of your English Literature book titled 'New Trends in English Reader' as a part of your English Literature assignment which will be submitted to you on dated 22nd Feb, 2021. Students, as I have already explained all these chapters in detail, so now you all are required to revise the provided content and attempt the given questions or extracts.

Q 1. Read these extracts carefully and answer the question with reference to the context.

a. I have never attached much importance to omens, Caesar. But I am frightened of them today. Many unusual things have been witnessed and reported.

i. Who said these words?

ii. What did she frighten of?

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Revision - Ch-12, Ch-13, Ch-15

Ch-16, Ch-17 (Extracts)

iii What did want Caesar to do?

iv. What was Caesar's ^{first} reaction to her superstitions?

b. I said, "All right, leave the police out of it or I'll crack you over the skull. I'd get six months at the most for it but I'd break you of the habit. You drive along and splash up mud and you're blind with conceit."

i. Who said this and to whom?

ii. Why did he want to crack his head?

iii. What is the habit the speaker is speaking of?

iv. How is the person spoken to punished by the speaker?

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Revision - Ch-12, 13, 15

Ch-16, 17 (Extracts)

c. That was only for a moment. She put on her old, brown jacket; she put on her old, brown hat. With her eyes shining brightly, she fluttered out of the door and down the stairs to the street.

i. Who is 'she' referred to in this extract?

ii. Where was she going?

iii. Why were her eyes shining brightly?

d. They turned the pages, which were yellow and crinkly, and it was awfully funny to read words that stood still instead of moving the way they were supposed to on screen, you know.

i. Who is 'they' here in this extract?

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Revision - Ch-12, 13, 15

Ch-16, 17 (extracts)

ii. Why were the pages yellow and crinkly?

iii. What was awfully funny about the words written in the book?

berlin.

iii

— last page —