

Class - VII

Subject - English Literature

Ms Jaswinder

Revision - Ch-4 Pandora's Box

Ch-5 Preserving Our Habitats

Good morning students

Today we are going to revise Ch-4, 5

Q1. Read the following extracts carefully and answer the questions that follow with reference to the context.

a. "How I wish to bestow upon man some great power, unshared by any other creature on earth, which would raise him far above all other living creatures and bring him nearer to the perfection of the immortal gods."

i) Who is I referred to in this extract?

ii) What was created by the speaker? Who told him to do so?

iii) What did he want to give to his creation?

iv) What did he decide to gift the man?

Class - VII

PAGE: 2

Subject - English Literature
Revision - Ch - 4, 5

Ms Jaswinder

b. Both Epimetheus and Pandora, who had never before experienced the faintest sensation of pain or anger, for the first time began to wail with pain.

i) Who is Pandora?

ii) Describe what happened as soon as Pandora raised the lid?

iii) Who has sent them all the evils and why?

iv) Why were they crying with pain?

c. We walked along the sea with the waves lapping at our feet till we came to rocky shore surrounded with sand and mud flat.

i) Who is 'we' here?

ii) Where were they going?

iii) Who was the guide?

Class - VII

PAGE: 3

Subj'd - English Literature Ms Jaswinder
Revision - Ch- 4, 5

What did the guide show them when they reached their destination?

He pointed out and said, "Look at this ecosystem thriving in here. Amazing isn't it?"

Who is the speaker of these lines when did he say this?

What was amazing?

What are the things that affect marine life according to the guide?

— last page —