

Tender Heart High School

Class - VII

Subject - Biology

Teacher - Ms. Nidhi Rana

Revision test for Chapters 1 and 2.

Good Morning Children! Before attempting the revision test, go through the chapters once again by atleast reading the chapter twice aloud.

Q1. Differentiate between the following :

- (a) Parenchyma and collenchyma.
- (b) Cardiac muscles and smooth muscles.
- (c) Bryophyta and Pteridophyta.

Q2. Define the terms :

- (a) Rhizoids
- (b) Monocots
- (c) Meristematic tissue.

Q3. Write any two uses of bacteria.

Q4. Give two examples of algae.

Q5. Write a short note on gymnosperms.

Class - VII Subject - Biology

Teacher - Ms. Nidhi Rana

Revision Test for Chapters 1 and 2.

- Q6. Draw three types of muscles.
- Q7. Name two supportive connective tissues.
- Q8. Name different components of blood.
- Q9. What do you understand by complex permanent tissue in plants?
- Q10. Fill in the blanks.
- _____ provides rigid mechanical and structural support to the plant.
 - Xylem mainly consists of _____ cells.
 - _____ tissue is found in petiole and veins of the leaves.
 - The cells are tall and cylindrical in _____ epithelium.
 - _____ tissue in animals contains cells filled with fat globules.
 - _____ tissue brings about movement in animals.
 - Ferns reproduce with the help of tiny bodies present on the undersurface of leaves. These bodies contain _____.
 - Amoeba reproduce by the process called _____.
 - The mode of nutrition in bread moulds is _____.
 - Unicellular organisms with a proper nucleus are known as _____.