

Tenden Heart High School

Section 33B, Chandigarh

Name: Varun Sathotra

Date: 27/1/25

Subject: Geography

Class: VIII

1) Introduction

- Human resource can be defined as the resource that reside in the knowledge, Skill and Motivation of People.
- This resource acts as means to support Human Race.

2) Importance of Human Resource

- It improves natural resource and enhances its value and use them efficiently.
- It improves the performance of humans in any organisation by providing teaching skills.
- Human Resources of one country migrate to other country and work there. With this, it adds to the national Income of his own country.
- Human Resources make use of different machines and tools in an organised way.
- With developing skills and techniques, human resources becomes valuable resource for any nation.
- Human resources are kept at top position because, humans control technology, environment etc these days.
- Human resources finds best employees for their organisation and recruit them.
- These days Human resources have created Artificial Intelligence that do the work of Humans.