

Class - VIII

Ms Jaswinder

Subject - English Language

Revision - Subject Verb Agreement,
- Active and Passive Voice,
Phrases

Q1. In the following sentences, underline the correct verb.

- i. Rashi and Preeti [is/are] students.
- ii. Gopal and I [was/were] watching a movie.
- iii. Five years [was/were] the time he spent to write this book.
- iv. My spectacles [is/are] lost.
- v. Neither his soldiers nor Ashoka [was/were] to admit defeat.
- vi. Either the boys or their mother [take/takes] care of garden.
- vii. Ten thousand rupees [is/are] too much to pay for this watch.
- viii. Nobody [help/helps] me with my homeworks.

Q2. Fill in the blanks with correct form of Verbs in brackets.

- i. I asked if anybody _____ the book: (have)
- ii. Neither of them _____ a chance of winning against her. (stand)
- iii. When waiting for a friend, each minute _____ like a day. (feel)
- iv. These trousers _____ not fit. (does/do)

Class - VIII

Ms Jaswinder

Subject - English Language

Revision - Subject Verb Agreement
Active and Passive Voice
Phrases

Q 3. Rewrite these sentences in the passive voice.

- i. We were renovating the living room.
- ii. The workers have called off the strike.
- iii. The peon rang the bell at exact eleven.
- iv. Somebody will send the invitation cards today.
- v. Sonam is tapping her phone.
- vi. Get out of my house.
- vii. Don't give the dog anything to eat.
- viii. Please help me with this project.

Q 4. Underline the phrases in the following sentences and state their types.

- i. We want to buy a spacious and fuel-efficient car.
- ii. You may go through this book at your pleasure.
- iii. The captain wanted to win the toss and bat first.
- iv. Candidates with a working knowledge of computer will be preferred.
- v. I thank you with all my heart.
- vi. To apologise for one's mistakes is a noble quality.

— last page —