

Class - VII

Subject - English Language

Revision - Non-Finite Verbs,

Conjunctions, Synonyms and Antonyms

Q1 Identify and underline the non-finite verbs. Write whether they are gerunds or participles.

a. I saw a crying baby in the park.

b. The broken chair was sent for repair.

c. She likes drinking cold water.

d. Hearing a peculiar sound we peeped into the bushes.

e. Deceived by the stranger, he came to us.

f. My brother loves building castles in the sand.

g. The book I am reading now is quite interesting.

h. The magician tried predicting the future.

Q2 Join the following sentences using infinitives and rewrite them.

a. The doctor advised him. Take fruits daily.

Class - VII

Subject - English Language

Revision - Non-Finite Verbs,

Conjunctions, Synonyms and Antonyms.

b. She returned home. She wanted some rest.

c. I heard of her misfortunes. I was sorry for that.

d. The leader wants to serve the people. This is his greatest desire.

e. Father is going to Delhi. He will start a business there.

Q 3. Underline the conjunctions and write its kind.

a. She wanted to buy a frock but she had no money.

b. They had a big bungalow and an expensive car.

c. Either you or your friend will have to clean all the mess you made.

d. If you help me I will help you.

e. Because she is weak, she cannot walk fast.

Class - VIISubject - English LanguageRevision - Non-Finite Verbs,Conjunctions, Synonyms and Antonyms

Q6. Write the antonyms of the following.

a. detected

b. spelt

c. polite

d. pleased

e. tired

f. nervous

g. Strange

h. believe

i. legible

j. balance

★ Parents are requested to make the child revise the relevant topics before attempting the revision test.

— last page —