Revision - Poem 'I Wandered Lonely As a
CloudHave You Earned Your Tomorrow?

Q1 Read the following stanzas carefully and answer the questions that follow.

a. Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay;
Ten thousand saw I at a glance
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

1. What does the poet compare the daffodils of?

2. Who wandered like a lonely cloud?

3. How many daffodils does the poet say that he saw at a glance? Why does he say so?

4. Describe the poet's thought on seeing the daffodils.

5. What is the wealth the poet gained?

6. How do we know this effect show of the daffodils had a long lasting effect on the poet?

Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or sorely spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

- i) How can you say that your day is well spent?
- ii) When would God say that you have earned one more tomorrow?
- iii) What are the good deeds, you can do with others?
- iv) At what time you should introspect yourself and why?
- v) Write the rhyme scheme of the stanza.
